Professional Experience

React Developer at Redbeard | Bangkok, Thailand | Oct 2017 - present
- I develop full stack applications, React on the front end, Node on the back end. If you want to see some code samples, I encourage you to look at my github at https://github.com/sophyphreak. Or just head to my portfolio.
- I develop front end React-Redux dynamic web apps, static web sites with React and Gatsby, REST API's with Node and Express, and I deploy through Heroku, DigitalOcean, and Netlify. I build my databases on Firebase and mLab with MongoDB. I build apps with TDD and CI/CD.
- Previously our company bought products in China and sold them on Amazon in the US, but then there was a trade war, so we stopped that.

English Teacher at VIPKID | Bangkok, Thailand | May 2018 - present

Project Leader at Daxue Consulting | Shanghai, China | March 2016 - October 2017
- We help clients to enter the Chinese market. I managed projects for clients located in the US, Singapore, Switzerland, and France

Primary School Teacher at Anubon Ubon School | Ubon Ratchathani, Thailand | August 2011 - September 2013

Governor at Maryland Student Legislature | Annapolis, Maryland | April 2010 - March 2011
- I presided over the organization during its 2010-2011 year.
- During my tenure, we increased the number of participating universities from 8 to 13—an increase of more than 50%. We had a record-breaking 70 participants at our fall Leadership Training Institute. We also saw a 200% increase in competitive elections for management-level offices.
